

Room Hire Rates and Information

BCOM

The British College of Osteopathic Medicine (BCOM) is internationally regarded as one of the world's best specialist osteopathic education institutions. During its long history, BCOM has become a world leader in osteopathic education and research. BCOM now hires out its practical and theory lecture rooms to external clients.

BCOM is situated on a number of travel routes. Directly opposite the Finchley Road underground station and very close to bus and rail links, the College Campus is accessible both to the wider city and to areas outside London. Our buildings are adjacent to each other and located in green space, but close to the shopping facilities of the landmark O2 Centre.

The Rooms

BCOM has a range of lecture rooms available to hire for both practical and theory classes. Each lecture room has a computer and associated projector, whiteboard and flip chart. Wi-Fi is available throughout. A 20 seat boardroom is also available to hire.

Catering and refreshments can be arranged if required at extra cost.

Practical rooms L4 and L5 are in our Lief House building and the Theory rooms are in our Frazer House building

L4                      20 treatment couches

L5                      25 Treatment couches

Muddiman Room    Flexible space that normally holds 50 desks and chairs but couches may be installed if required

Lecture Theatre    Tiered seating to hold up to 120

Transport

BCOM's location and facilities make it an ideal choice for your meeting or event. Finchley Road Tube station is directly opposite Lief House and is served by both the Jubilee and Metropolitan underground lines. Finchley Road and Frognal overground station is about 10 minutes walk away.

Bus routes 13, 82, 113, 187, 268 and C11 stop immediately opposite or adjacent to Lief House.

Local Facilities

There are several coffee shops in the area and Waitrose directly opposite Lief House offers a range of sandwiches, snacks and take away food. The O2 centre is situated about 5 minutes walk away and has a variety of restaurants, a cinema, a sports centre and various shopping outlets.

A limited number of parking spaces are available at Lief House or Frazer House with prior agreement, and additional parking is available at the O2 centre and in the Waitrose underground car park.

There are 2 hotel options available within a few minutes' walk away from BCOM.
